WHY STUDY INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS?

We live in a time where opportunities exist all over the world, despite where we reside. An International Business degree gives students the skills that organisations need in a changing, global environment. There are career opportunities within the areas of supply chain management, finance, accounting, marketing, and consulting.

Studying International Business at DSTU will expose you to experiences on a larger, global scale. You will better understand various cultures, markets, and geographies. This degree will help you see the larger picture when it comes to developing solutions for a future employer with global implications. The International business programme enables you to obtain a strong background in practical business studies as well as an understanding of sociopolitical issues that concern multinational corporations.
